“REVERSE MENTORING FOR IMPROVING E-SKILLS ADULTS FOR DIGITAL COMPETENCES”

The “Reverse Mentoring for Improving e-Skills Adults for Digital Competences: Mentoring Change” project aims to train mentors on how to develop a better understanding on an individual’s soft skills, job role preferences, and learning styles and to teach in an engaging and innovative way digital competences, so that mentors can better advice adults on how to articulate this constellation of skills to improve their employability prospects.
